2011 REGULAR SESSION
ACTUARIAL NOTE HB 377

Bill Information:

Current Law

Legislators were deemed to be part time employees effective January 1, 1997. As a part time employee, a legislator is not eligible to participate in any Louisiana public retirement system relative to his legislative employment. However, individuals who were members of a Louisiana Public retirement system on January 1, 1997, including legislators, were grandfathered into any pension benefit accruals, rights and features pertaining to legislative service.

Proposed Law

The following benefit changes will apply to certain grandfathered individuals elected to the legislature on or after July 1, 2011.

1. For any such person who is not dual employed.
 - a. The benefit accrual rate shall be 2% per year of legislative service earned after July 1, 2011.
 - b. The person will not be entitled to the special 1% additional accrual rate for legislative service on or after July 1, 2011 that otherwise applies to grandfathered legislators.
2. For any such person who is dual employed.
 - a. Salary earned as a legislator on or after July 1, 2011 will not be included in the calculation of any benefits to which he may otherwise be entitled as a member of any Louisiana public retirement system.
 - b. Employment as a legislator after July 1, 2011 will not be credited as service in the calculation of any benefit to which he may otherwise be entitled as a member of any Louisiana public retirement system.
 - c. No contributions will be required from the legislator relative to the income he earns as a legislator. The legislature, as the employer of the legislator, will not be required to make any contributions on the legislator's behalf.

For the purposes of this summary, dual employment means employment in a position requiring membership in any Louisiana public retirement system while also serving as a legislator.

These provisions of HB 377 will not apply to any grandfathered individual employed as a legislator on June 30, 2011.

Implications of the Proposed Changes

Benefit accruals for legislative service earned on or after July 1, 2011 will be curtailed for any individual satisfying all of the following conditions:

1. The individual received grandfathered benefit rights as of January 1, 1997,
2. The individual was not serving as a legislator as of June 30, 2011, and
3. The individual is elected to the legislature on or after July 1, 2011.

Cost Analysis:

Analysis of Actuarial Costs

Retirement Systems

HB 377 will have no effect on the actuarial costs. The present value of benefits attributable to denied credits is equal to the present value of the employer and employee contributions that would have been necessary to finance the denied credits.

Other Post Retirement Benefits

There are no actuarial costs associated with HB 377 for post-retirement benefits other than pensions.

Analysis of Fiscal Costs

HB 377 will have the following effects on fiscal costs during the five year measurement period. The analysis below pertains to a single member of a state or statewide retirement system who is denied special legislative benefit accruals under HB 377.

Expenditures:

1. Expenditures from the State General Fund will be reduced to the extent that employer contribution requirements will be smaller because such benefit accruals are denied.
2. Expenditures from a state or statewide retirement system for benefit payments (Agency Self Generated expenditures) will be reduced to the extent that such benefit accruals are denied.

2011 REGULAR SESSION
ACTUARIAL NOTE HB 377

3. Expenditures from Local Funds will be reduced to the extent that such benefit accruals are denied and to the extent that special benefit accruals for a member of statewide system would otherwise have been financed from local funds.

Revenues:

1. Revenues to state and statewide retirement systems (Agency Self Generated revenues) will be reduced to the extent that employer contribution requirements are reduced.
2. Revenues to state and statewide retirement systems (Agency Self Generated revenues) will be reduced to the extent that employee contributions on the member’s income from employment as a legislator will be reduced.

If a member of a state or statewide retirement system satisfying the conditions of HB 377 should be elected to the legislature during the fiscal cost measurement period, the reduction in revenues during the measurement period will exceed the reduction of expenditures. Therefore there would be a net fiscal cost. Such cost would be negligible.

Additional costs to administer the provisions of HB 377 are negligible.

Actuarial Credentials:

Paul T. Richmond is the Manager of Actuarial Services for the Louisiana Legislative Auditor. He is an Enrolled Actuary, a member of the American Academy of Actuaries, a member of the Society of Actuaries and has met the Qualification Standards of the American Academy of Actuaries to render the actuarial opinion contained herein.
